New time for zoom social catch-up?!

As many of us have returned to physical church attendance recently the Sunday after service catch-up has rather fallen apart. This is because the church goers are still on their way home and the vicar is saying goodbye and clearing up!

Can you let me know your preferences for a better time to hold this? A half hour at noon on Sunday would be a pre-lunch possibility or alternatively a weekday afternoon or early evening might suit better depending upon those who work and other commitments. Let me have your comments.

But for now this Sunday's catch-up will go ahead as normal.

Scam Warning

A scam warning through from Revd Richard Howlett at Apsley. Some of his congregation have responded to an appeal for funds from the 'Team Rector'. He is concerned that this might be a targeted scam against churchgoers. Please don't respond if you get anything...I won't be asking you for money by text! John Email from The Revd Rickey Simpson-Gray, former curate in our parish, now Team Vicar in the parish of Swan, Bucks.

Hi All

Hope you are keeping well and safe.

I thought you might be interested in my email below to my colleagues in the Claydons and Swan Team Ministry.

God is good and only elevation comes from Him.

This is great news for the legacy of St Mary's, St Paul's and your amazing contribution to my ministry journey to date. Thank you. x

We serve a God that keeps on giving...

Kind regards

Rickey

"I am writing to notify you that I have recently accepted the post of a Bishops' Adviser for the Diocese. This offer came over the weekend in response to a personal invitation from our Bishops and Archdeacons via the Head of Vocations and Diocesan Director of Ordinands. In terms of the future role, there will not be any immediate impact on Parish / Team work other than undergoing training later in the year as a Ministerial Formation Adviser or Personal Formation Adviser. With the benefit of growing support within the Parish, I have a greater scope to delegate tasks to free up my time to manage priorities going forward.

"Your prayers as to these next steps will be welcomed". - Rickey
